

CONFERENCE

Leadership Selection

How should Canada's political party's choose their leaders? Examining the implications of different methods of party leadership selection

Friday, November 30, 2012
2 Rideau Street, Government Conference Center

REVISED

- 9:30 a.m. Registration and Coffee
- 10:00 a.m. Welcoming Remarks, Jonathan Malloy, President of CSPG
- 10:05 a.m. “Why Party Leadership Selection Matters and Recent Developments in Selection Methods”
- Moderator: Jonathan Malloy, Carleton University
- Panellist: William Cross, Carleton University
- 10:50 a.m. First Panel: “Leadership Choice in Canada’s Provincial and Federal Parties: Selection Methods and their Implications”
- Moderator: Lori Turnbull, Dalhousie University
- Panellists: R. Kenneth Carty, University of British Columbia
David Stewart, University of Calgary
Ian Stewart, Acadia University
- 12:20 p.m. Lunch
- 1:10 p.m. “Lesson from Abroad: Party Leadership Selection in the UK Parties”
- Moderator: Scott Pruysers, Carleton University
- Panellist: Tim Bale, Queen Mary University, London
- 2:00 p.m. Second Panel: “The View from the Inside: Leadership Candidates and Party Officials”
- Moderator: William Cross, Carleton University
- Panellists: Anne McGrath, ENSight Canada
Ted Morton, University of Calgary/Alberta Conservative Party
Yasir Naqvi, Ontario Liberal Party
- 3:30 p.m. Closing Remarks and adjournment